HE FOR THE LEAD IN THE HASTINGS CHESS TOURNAMENT.

The Brooklyn Lead Wins Seven Games Straight by Beating Mason Yesterday—First Drawn Against Teichgraber by Pillsbury—White Barbedale Lost by Time Limit, While Barbedale Is Beaten by Pillsbury—Lasker Only Draws with Pillsbury—The Record Up to Date.

HASTINGS, England, Aug. 17.—The tenth round of the international chess masters' tournament was played at Brassy's Institute this afternoon and evening. Pillsbury, who defeated Mason to-day, now ranks level with Teichgraber, inasmuch as the latter could only draw against him. Barbedale and Lasker follow the leader with an equal score on account of the former's defeat at the hands of Pillsbury and Lasker's draw with Pillsbury.

A sensation, however, was caused when Pillsbury suffered his second defeat in this tournament by not observing the time-limit rule.

Appendix is to-day's pairings:

NINTH ROUND.
Vergara vs. Pillsbury.
Pillsbury vs. Mason.
Pillsbury vs. Barbedale.
Pillsbury vs. Lasker.

Stenitz opened with a Glouco Piano against Barbedale, and the latter gave the veteran a chance to win the game by a brilliant combination after twenty-five moves. Black was rather slow in the development of his pieces, and Stenitz, by his manipulation of the king's pawn, succeeded in having them in readiness for a combined attack on both sides of the board after about eighteen moves. Then his time had come for a grand effort, which Barbedale could not parry, so he resigned.

Pillsbury and Mason discussed a Queen's gambit, which was promptly declined by the latter. In the opening the players remained on equal terms, but later on in the contest Mason was clearly outplayed by the Brooklyn lad, who won his eighth game in splendid style after thirty-six moves.

During the evening Pillsbury received the following cable message from Brooklyn:
Pillsbury Hastings—Heartiest congratulations. We are proud of you.

Veteran Bird's attack was overthrown by offering Teichgraber an Evans Gambit, which he promptly accepted. The result was a draw, but at times hard pressed, but managed eventually to equalize matters and succeeded in consuming the king's pawn, which, in combination, which, with a little care, ought to have won right out, but being too hasty, he gave Bird a chance, which he drew the game, with a perpetual check.

Teichgraber opened irregularly against Pillsbury. The latter soon got the attack, which he carried out with remarkable ability. White was at times slow in his development, but he was able to bring his pieces into play in a most effective manner. The game ended in a draw after thirty-two moves.

Teichgraber adopted a French Defence when playing Pillsbury. Somewhat the Italian got mixed up in the opening. Pillsbury thereupon adopted a variation of the French Defence, and the game ended in a draw after thirty-two moves.

PERHAPS THEY FEAR CONFESSION.

The Field Thinks His Election to the N. Y. A. C. in Questionable Taste.

After seeing the London A. C. annex every athlete calculated to score in the international track and field tournament next month, Englishmen are beginning to look with jealousy on the setting enterprise of the New York A. C. Connelly's election seems to touch them on a sensitive spot, a fact which would seem to indicate that Champion Bacon is no longer considered to have a mortgage on the mile run here. Why Connelly should be taken into the N. Y. A. C. ranks as a set-off against Barry is not clear.

The Field, however, lays particular stress on this point in the following item on the coming games:

"The members of the London A. C. who will leave on the 27th inst. to fulfil their engagement with the New York A. C. are as follows: 100 yards, A. R. Downer; 320 yards, A. R. Downer and W. Fitz Herbert; quarter mile, E. C. Bredin and W. Fitz Herbert; half mile, E. C. Bredin and F. S. Horan; one mile, F. E. Bacon, W. E. Lutens, and E. J. Wilkins; three miles, F. E. Bacon, H. English Records Broken on the Wheel.

FAST MILE ON A "QUAD."

And Other Interesting Features at the Manhattan Beach Meet.

A gale of wind swept across the bicycle track at Manhattan Beach yesterday afternoon, and as a result the times recorded in the various professional races held under the auspices of the National Cycle and Athletic Club were of a very ordinary character. All the noted professionals were in attendance and the finishes were close and interesting.

F. W. Young, the Toronto crack, who is matched to race John S. Johnson and who showed such indifferent form at the races held on Wednesday, rode yesterday in capital form and surprised the American "pro" by winning the half-mile race easily.

Harry Wheeler rode well in his trial heats, but has yet to do considerable training before he will be in condition to race with the leaders. William F. Murphy rode in the professional "quad" race, and as a result will be transferred to the professional class. Summaries:
